

Business Interruption

If your business suffers a property loss it could cause the business to slow or close down while repairs are made. This could result in a complete or partial revenue loss depending on the time frame and the damage.

From the time the loss occurs until your business is up and running again, insurance can replace your lost profits, and provide a source of money to pay your necessary continuing expenses (rent, payroll, taxes, etc.)