

Commercial Property, Personal Property, Marine

Commercial Property Replacement cost coverage offers protection for:

- buildings that you own or are responsible for insuring
- business personal property
- business machinery
- business inventory
- business data processing equipment.
- tenant Improvements in leased space

Important extensions to protect your personal effects, valuable papers and records, accounts receivable, business income and extra expense are also available.

Inland Marine provides coverage for property used by a business in the field that may be in the office, on site or in transit.