

Workers Compensation

Workers Compensation is a mandated insurance coverage that is administrated by each state in accordance with their own set of rules and guidelines. State law requires that every employer provide Workers Compensation insurance on their employees. This insurance provides coverage for accidents or disease arising from employment as prescribed by state laws.

Workers Comp Benefits can also include lost wages, medical expenses, and permanent disfigurement/disability payments.